STEP 1 | DISCOVER

INITIALS

- a) Study Matthew 28:19–20, Mosiah 18:8–10, Doctrine and Covenants 18:15–16, and Alma 29:9, then write a 1–2 page explanation of why sharing the gospel is a covenant responsibility, not merely a personal choice.
- b) Research and explain four distinct methods of sharing the gospel (example, service, testimony, teaching), including appropriate settings, risks, and spiritual preparation required for each.
- c) Interview two different individuals (parent, leader, or mentor) about experiences sharing the gospel; compare what made one experience effective and another challenging.

STEP 2 | PLAN

INITIALS

- a) Write a structured personal testimony outline that includes:
 - a.1) Core doctrine of Jesus Christ
 - a.2) A defining spiritual experience
 - a.3) How the gospel governs moral decisions
 - a.4) A concise 2-minute verbal version
- b) Identify three real-life scenarios where gospel sharing may arise, and plan respectful, age-appropriate responses that preserve relationships while maintaining doctrinal honesty.
- c) Prepare scripture-supported responses to four common gospel questions or objections, written in your own words and reviewed with a leader.

STEP 3 | ACT

INITIALS

- a) Share your testimony of Jesus Christ verbally with three different people on separate occasions, recording context, response, and personal reflection after each. _____
- b) Perform two intentional acts of service aimed at reflecting Christ's love, then explain to a leader how service functions as silent gospel witness. _____
- c) Participate in two separate respectful gospel conversations where questions or differing beliefs are discussed without contention; document lessons learned from each. _____
- d) Prepare and teach a 15-minute gospel lesson or devotional to a group (family, quorum, class, or battalion), including scripture use and testimony bearing. _____

STEP 4 | REFLECT

INITIALS

- a) Write a multi-paragraph reflection describing how sharing the gospel required courage, humility, and reliance on the Spirit, noting specific moments of growth. _____
- b) Identify four Christlike attributes you must continue developing to represent the gospel faithfully; counsel with a leader or parent about a growth plan. _____
- c) Record a final written testimony explaining how sharing the gospel fulfills the Saint's Oath to serve God, family, and country through righteous influence. _____
